My name = Alex Yoo
Name of person being reviewed = Songyi Sang

My peer contributed to the project by converting htmls to jinja templates and revising the database according to the Database Diagram from the previous assessment.
She also took her part in creating additional front-end view templates with jinja template engine, such as basket, checkout, dvds (view all items), wishlist pages as required from the user stories. Additionally, she recorded the video showcasing our e-commerce store.

Name of person being reviewed = Alex Yoo

He mainly implemented the backend part of the application, such as development of views, controllers, and data models using SQLAlchemy according to the database I have revised.
He mainly took part in developing major functionalities for the web app, and advised on the overall designs of the web application to meet users' stories and application requirements.
